

Liquor store can be built

FRANKFORT — Zoning was a major topic at the recent session of the Frankfort Village Board.

An ordinance rezoning the property of Ralph Show on U.S. 45, north of the A & W stand from R-1 to B-2 was adopted by the board. The B-2 classification will permit the operation of a package liquor store on the site and that is what is planned.

Also adopted was an ordinance changing the classification of a lot owned by Jack Houchens, in Block 1 of Smith's Addition, from R-1 to R-1A. R-1A is for a single family dwelling but the lot size is smaller than for R-1.

Another semi-zoning matter that came up relates to the strip annexation program adopted by the board that has stirred up the village board of Matteson. More than a year ago Frankfort strip annexed principal roads and highway which for the most part ran east and west. Among the roads annexed in this fashion was U.S. 30 east to Ridgeland Avenue and Sauk Trail to parallel it.

According to village officials, Ridgeland Avenue also was strip annexed. Then recently the board voted to strip annex a number of connecting roads. The strip annexation extends west to the New Lenox Township line.

It was after this action that Matteson took notice of the strip annexation and at last week's Frankfort board session Mayor Glenn Warning read a letter from the Village of Matteson questioning the validity of the annexation, pointing out that the Penn Central railroad which parallels U.S. 30 at Ridgeland had not asked to be annexed to Frankfort.

Frankfort officials all along have emphasized they did not make the strip annexations with a view of annexing properties they border but to give the village some control over the layout of subdivisions and developments within a 1½ radius of its boundary lines.

Frankfort wants such development to conform with the subdivision code of its master plan. It is because of these eastward boundary lines that Frankfort was the closest municipality to the proposed mobile home park between U.S. 30 and Sauk Trail at Ridgeland Avenue and because of that had filed an objection to such zoning with the Cook County Board of Commissioners.

The validity of filing this objection has been questioned, but no formal or legal action has been taken.

Frankfort Village Attorney August J. Santoro is to arrange a meeting to be attended by the mayors of Frankfort and Matteson, the plan commission chairmen and the village attorneys to discuss the situation and strive to reach an amicable agreement.

The strip annexation program of Frankfort was originally proposed by the village plan commission. Records show that the strip annexation issue has never had a firm decision by the state courts and Santoro has said on various occasions that he had doubts about its legality. The general opinion is that if not attacked within a year such annexations would stand, Santoro said, but he was not convinced that protests could not be heard at a later period.

Mayor Warning informed the board that he met recently with members of the Frankfort Industrial Commission and discussed the water situation. He said that Village Engineer Robert E. Hamilton is now making a study on the updating of the water system. The board, the mayor emphasized, should keep in mind the need for an additional well and water storage facilities. Ample water storage is a factor in insurance rates for industries, he pointed out.

Trustee Donald Stupp, police commissioner, said that beginning today, March 1, police will begin issuing tickets to motorists who are required to have, but who do not possess, Frankfort stickers for motor vehicles.

There was a discussion as to whether college students and residents with leased cars should be required to purchase village stickers. The board decided that if the vehicle is registered from Frankfort and the owner is a legal resident of the village, it needs a Frankfort vehicle sticker. However, no one will be required to purchase a sticker if he has already purchased one in another municipality, as is the case with some leased vehicles.

Trustee Wilbert Klier reported that half of the sewer mains had been installed in Colorado Hills and that the contractor was doing a good job.

At an executive session, Trustee Howard Osmus recommended that the village hire Ronald Simrell as a part-time building inspector. The board agreed and Simrell will be employed, subject to approval by the Vocational Rehabilitation Agency. Simrell suffered an accidental injury a couple of years ago. He is familiar with building construction, Osmus pointed out.

Webers to build complex

MOKENA — Several building projects are in store for Mokena. The village board had a special meeting Tuesday night to discuss the pre-annexation agreement for a planned unit development by William Weber and William Weber Jr. involving a 44-acre tract west of Schoolhouse Road between Third and 191st Streets.

The board will inform the Webers of any changes the village would like. These will be discussed at the regular board meeting March 14.

The Webers also own approximately 37 acres on the east side of Schoolhouse Road. They also plan an apartment complex there eventually, if the property is not converted to industrial use. At present it is zoned industrial.

On the west side tract the Webers said they plan rental apartments and condominiums. Some of the units will be double-faced—front and back will be the same—and parking space will be at the sides. The units the Webers mentioned will be of rustic style, with balconies on the second and third floors. The entrances are up on raised platforms.

There will be some three-bedroom apartments and some two-bedroom. The plans as outlined would have a maximum of 650 units, with a density of about 16 units. They asked for R-5 zoning but are willing to take R-4 with some variations.

James Lynch, appearing for the Webers, said that with the two and one-half acres they would give the Mokena Park District, the eight acres the Webers would reserve for their own home sites, and a lake, the density would be reduced to about 13 units with a maximum of 610 units. The Webers had planned a 50 foot roadway but were willing to make it 66 feet.

According to Trustee Chester Ebert there is a bad sewer line in the area which he is sure would be made worse by additional hook-ups. Village engineer George Barber said the sewage disposal plan can accommodate the building as it is running now at about 50 per cent capacity.

He recommended that the sewer lines of the area from Wolf Road east be examined by closed-circuit television and if obstructions were found to have the mains repaired.

He suggested the developers advance the money for this. Mayor Will Tuttle said there should be enough money from tapons from the first three buildings to take care of the tests and repairs. On a motion by Ebert the board instructed Barber to get bids on a TV study of the mains to be opened at the March 14 meeting.

Also appearing before the board was Joseph DiPaulo to discuss his plans for purchasing 10 acres at 187th and Wolf Road.

He has planned to subdivide into half-acre lots to build single-family dwellings—a total of 19 homes. The houses would be facing 187th Street, with the possible exception of three which would front on Wolf Road.

All driveways, however, would lead off

187th Street. This subdivision would be under county zoning but has to have approval of the village board.

Village Engineer Barber suggested he could annex to Mokena and run the sewer line north to connect the property which would enable him to divide the plot into 30 lots.

The sewer main would have to be extended 2,500 feet at an approximate cost of $25,000. DiPaulo indicated he would go along with his original plan.

Scott Street residents appeared to discuss the Istel zoning matter. The zoning board voted against the rezoning which would permit some multiple dwellings. The village board voted to overrule the zoning board and now indications are that the matter will be taken up again by the village board at a future meeting.

The Mokena trustees were informed by Robert E. Hamilton, engineer who drafted the plans for the sewage plant to serve the Shagbark development that bids are being sought for the plant. The plant would also serve Brightwood residents in Mokena. Mayor Will Tuttle reported that he had not heard from the developers as to when they plan to start construction but has hopes the plant will be ready by next winter.

No word has been received relative to the proposed changes in street lighting in Brightwood. Trustee Kenneth Warning reported.

Firemen train for trauma

FRANKFORT — A program through which the state hopes to reduce highway deaths and crippling injuries was outlined to Frankfort Volunteer Firemen by Earl Laflam, trauma coordinator for the division of Emergency Medical Services and highway safety for the state department of public health, at a meeting recently.

Laflam was introduced by Eugene Gerardi, operator of Frankfort Community Chapel, who also operates an ambulance service in the area and plans to expand it.

Trauma was defined by Laflam as an injury from an external cause that can be fatal or crippling unless proper care is given.

It is to assure such care that the state is setting up trauma centers where the facilities and the medical staff are prepared for such emergencies.

A part of the program will be the schooling and training of persons handling accident victims, including ambulance crews, police and firemen to the end they become registered Emergency Medical Technicians.

Communications under this program will be improved. Eventually there will be a central communications hook-up with trauma centers. In the meantime the centers now operate the two-way Hospital Emergency Administration Radio System (HEARS).

Ambulance crews, rescue squads and police can alert hospitals how many patients are being brought in and give a description of their probable condition.

If radio communication is not directly available the messages can be relayed or telephoned.

St. Joseph Hospital at Joliet has been designated as a regional trauma center, but Laflam said that Silver Cross Hospital is also equipped to handle trauma cases.

A school for emergency medical training is to be conducted at Joliet Junior College which will be open to all persons interested.

Thursday and Friday, March 2-3, tests will be given in the auditorium at St. Joseph Hospital to firemen, policemen, ambulance operators and others involved in emergency work.

The written examinations will be given at the hospital. The practical tests, which will include demonstration of first aid skills and resuscitation will be given at the Naval Reserve Training Center. Those taking the tests will be transported to the hospital by bus.

Laflam said that those most likely to pass the tests will be persons who have completed advanced first aid classes conducted by the American Red Cross, and ex-servicemen who were corpsmen in the navy or in the army medical corps. Persons who fail can take the schooling offered at the junior college free. There will be 21 weeks of classes.

Gerardi said that he plans to expand his ambulance service, which now covers Frankfort, New Lenox and the Mokena areas, by adding two ambulances so he can have one in each locality.

He said the crews will have passed the required examinations and are registered Emergency Medical Technicians. The ambulances will be fully equipped to meet the state's requirements, according to Gerardi.

Scouts receive awards

MOKENA — Cub Scouts of Pack 40 held their blue and gold banquet last Thursday evening with 200 in attendance. The event was held at Carpenter Street School.

Bob Yanchick, cubmaster, introduced the guests. They were Rev. Laslo Hunyady, pastor of St. John's United Church of Christ, who gave the invocation; Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Morrill, principal of Willowcrest School; Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Fenn, cub leader trainer and speaker; Mrs. Bob Yanchick; and the special guests, Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Brown, who were honored for their past service to Pack 40.

The following awards were presented to the boys: Bobcat - David Barnes, Danny Miller, Richard Engstrom and Jim Drackley. Wolf Badge or arrow in the rank -

Steve Moore received his Webelos award and left the pack to join Boy Scout Troop 40 of Mokena.

Indian dances were performed by the Order of the Arrow Indian Dancers from Kankakee, Explorer Post 306.

Spotlighted flags were retired to the sounds of Andy Williams' recording, "The Battle Hymn of the Republic."

Moore vows independent state's attorneys office

By Tom Houlihan

CHICAGO HEIGHTS — "Control of the state's attorney's office is integral to the Chicago Democratic machine," said Donald Page Moore. "For the state's attorney carries the power of indictment. Without that power, the machine would be running scared. With an honest, independent state's attorney, it would be the beginning of the end for the machine."

Moore added, "If I am elected—no, when I am elected—I will be as independent from the Daley machine as I am now."

Donald Page Moore is campaigning for the Democratic nomination for state's attorney. His opponents in the March 21 primary are incumbent Edward Hanrahan and Judge Raymond Berg, who has the support of the Daley organization. Still, Moore insists that he will win. "People like me," he said, "they can sense that I'm not telling them what to do. They know that I come from a family just like their families."

Dressed in a plain white shirt and plain black suit, Moore hardly looks like one of the modern breed of style-conscious politicians. In fact, he insists that he is not a politician and entered the race only out of civic duty. At a recent informal press conference in the law offices of State Rep. Anthony Scariano, Moore puffed on a cigar and sipped a soft drink as he discussed his campaign, opponents and program for the state's attorney's office.

"I've got one unique qualification," said Moore. "I've shook 40,000 hands since Jan. 1." He said that he goes to bowling alleys every night and "I can get 200 handshakes in 15 minutes." Moore said that he had been campaigning "for 11 hours today and I've only got seven more to go. I can't wait until the primary is over, but it looks like I'm going to be in the race another seven months." He said that an upcoming straw poll will show him in second place behind Hanrahan, with Berg running a weak third. Moore says that his popularity is still rising.

"Ray Berg is a very nice young man," said Moore. "But Chicago is a tough town and a nice young man that is a creature of the machine is helpless. If the machine makes you, the machine owns you."

Moore called Edward Hanrahan "an unscrupulous man" and "almost paranoid." "To him, there's no such thing as an honest disagreement. He blames his own incompetence on judges, newspapers, television, bar associations, and any and all black groups."

"Hanrahan is the worst state's attorney in modern times. He has lost 46 per cent of his felony cases; that means that in nearly half the cases that went to trial, the defendant was innocent, or was guilty and got off free."

Moore said that Hanrahan hasn't had a major organized crime program in three years. "His organized crime program has been zero," he said.

"Under me, the state's attorney's office will be the most exciting office since Thomas Dewey became state's attorney in New York in the 30's. The public image of the state's attorney is one of a Dick Tracy-type; it should be more of a Ralph Nader-type."

Moore said that his office would hold a full investigation of the county assessor's office and the building department. These offices are traditionally part of the Democratic machine along with the state's attorney. Moore promised, "I'd liberate the state's attorney's office by taking away the politics that are now present. Political sponsorship and clout would be out. No more campaign solicitations or contributions would be allowed."

"I would be the number one recruiter and go around to law schools for their top graduates and also the most important law firms. I would want a four-year moral commitment. I know that I could get top lawyers because the office would present such a challenge."

Moore said that there would be two men in his office who would work on nothing but panic peddlers. "Unscrupulous real estate men are killing the city. If they aren't stopped, Cook County will be nothing but a black ghetto surrounded by a white ring."

Moore, 42, graduated from the University of Illinois law school in 1956. He once went into debt representing underprivileged clients without fee. Before the age of 32, he had won two decisions before the United States Supreme Court.

While with the U.S. Department of Justice, Moore headed investigative teams that successfully prosecuted Teamster boss James Hoffa and also Bobby Baker, a powerful associate of L.B.J.

Time Magazine called Moore one of the "able advocates who make the U.S. adversary system of justice what it is supposed to be—a truth seeking contest between equal rivals."

On second thought

Did the rod burn out?

By Glenn Logan

In writing of the to-do made by the Ford company last week over the five millionth car run off on its Chicago plant assembly line since it opened in 1914, your correspondent neglected to mention the relief the press relation staff must have felt when the last of the several hundred dealers and news media people left the place.

It is not that they were inhospitable. Far from it. They had a good sized job to do, arranging for advance publicity, running off copies of the various speeches that were to follow the luncheon, having photographers available, compilation of fact sheets and other details that take time and effort.

Things were intended to go smoothly and they did but still it mst have been quite a relief to have it all over without anything happening to cause trouble. That's one of the occupational perils of PR people — to have something happen to cause trouble.

Your correspondent recalls another time when Ford had a nice bit of publicity going that had some news value; enough in fact to attract the metropolitan dailies and the wire services.

That's not so difficult to do today. The big papers and the wire services give generous space to words and pictures of piddling occurrences and people, that in other times wouldn't have been seen or heard.

World War I hadn't been over so long that the German Kaiser and his son, the crown prince, had been forgotten. Ask anyone about the Kaiser now and he may ask, "What Kaiser, what's his first name?" I don't know the last names of too many of the guys where I work.

Anyway, the fact that the eldest son of the crown prince was working for Ford at Detroit was duly reported in the papers on a national basis, and every once in a while he was good for a story, which also included a nugget or two about what the Ford company was doing. Months later it was announced that his younger brother was coming to America, and naturally would spend some time with his brother at Detroit.

Then the two scions of fading German royalty embarked on a motor trip. Your correspondent doesn't remember where they were going but St. Louis was one of the points. The party came from Detroit to Chicago — the two princes in a Lincoln, of course. A big, fancy job.

U.S. 66 the route they took at Chicago and from there came to Joliet to be luncheon guests of the late Paul Schoene, host of the old Woodruff Hotel, which was famed for its cooking.

Detroit newsmen started out on the trek with, of course, several of Ford's public relations people. At Chicago more cars with reporters joined the cavalcade and a couple of reporters cars took to the trail at Joliet so it was quite a procession heading down Route 66. There were a couple of state troopers out in front so we were really wheeling.

The elder prince was driving the Lincoln and he had a heavy foot. The rest of us were strung out along the highway doing the best we could but it seemed hopeless until suddenly there was Wilmington, and pulled up by the Ford garage was the big Lincoln, the state police and the public relations men. The latter did not look too happy as the news cavalcade came up. "Just a little minor trouble," one of them volunteered in response to a query.

This produced a flood of questions which were fielded deftly by the PR crew until a newsman came up who had been chatting with mechanics at the garage.

"A rod burned out," he announced.

"A rod burned out?" his colleagues echoed. "In a Lincoln?"

"No, no, fellows, please," begged the head of the PR detail. "For God's sake, don't print anything like that. They don't know yet just what it is but we're sure it's not a rod."

"Cadillac people will love to read this," remarked one of the reporters to no one in particular. The PR man looked to be on the verge of a convulsion.

"Look, guys," he pleaded, "do you want us to lose our jobs?" "You shouldn't lose your jobs just because this car broke down," a newsman countered. "If anybody gets fired it should be the bunch that put this heap together or the engineer who designed the engine."

None of us actually cared whether the Lincoln had burned out a rod, or had just taken a notion to stop running, as automobiles have done from the beginning.

We weren't automobile or travel editors or writers. But we were enjoying our needle work on the PR's. To them this was catastrophe. The bitter end.

I thought I would try it on my city editor for size and called in.

"Where are you?" he demanded.

"Wilmington."

"Wilmington, for Cripes sake," you've been gone long enough to be in Springfield. Why are you in Wilmington? Where are those German princes?"

"They're here, the princes are here. They're here because a rod burned out in the Lincoln..."

"Did the princes get out when the car burned? Are they hurt or dead?" he asked hopefully.

"No, no," I finally got in, "the car didn't burn. Someone says a rod burned out but the PR guys say this is a lie, started by Cadillac spies. They are waiting here for another car. Don't you want anything on this rod burning out, although I'm not sure that it actually did."

"Thell with the rod," — the city editor wasn't an automobile man either. "That's technical stuff. I'll have one of the people here write that the party stopped at Wilmington for repairs and then went on. And you come in, I've got a story..."

I never heard how the PR's made out. I think, though, everything was O.K. Chicago had a better than average gang killing that kept the A.M.'s and the P.M.'s busy for a couple of days, plus a political scandal, so the PR's were lucky to get any mention of the princes' trip and that they were driving a Lincoln.

Late board stories

Engineer policy studied

TINLEY PARK — The village board had a lengthy discussion Monday night while reviewing a proposal of village engineering duties and policies as submitted by Trustee Richard Durkin.

Durkin outlined a 16-point program with the understanding that the engineering firm of R.W. Robinson would also give their recommendation.

The main point of discussion was whether or not a village engineering firm can serve as engineer consultant for developers and builders within the village limits.

When questioned as to the legality of the matter, Village Attorney Ed Richardson said that a state statute does not allow for a village employee to "serve two masters."

Mayor John Dunn said that the firm of R.W. Robinson had been used by the Village of Tinley Park through the terms of two previous mayors and he felt that he was speaking for them also in stating that there had never been any question as to the intent of the firm to always serve the village first and in the best possible way.

Durkin said that no one was questioning the sincerity of the firm. However, he and Trustee Robert Mason both said that the board should investigate procedures in other villages concerning the practice.

Trustee Carl Montecki said he could recall a particular committee meeting when a member of the firm represented a contractor in a matter in direct opposition to the requests and decisions of that village committee.

Director of Public Works Bob Powers was asked by the board to inquire into other villages as to their village policies regarding engineering firms' handling of private business during tenure of employment by their village.

Other points of Durkin's proposal which will possibly be carried out in conjunction with the Department of Public Works were: (1) attendance at board meetings and committee meetings when requested; (2) preparation and maintenance of water and sewer atlases; (3) preparing data on sanitary sewer and needs for expansion; (4) preparation of data for water and well facilities and (future) (5) preparation of flood area maps; (6) recommendation of changes to upgrade community prior to arrival of problems; (7) recommendation of facilities expansion; (8) recommendation of need for study in areas of storm water sewers; (9) field inspection; (10) checking and advising on availability of grants and funding; (11) reviewing of other governmental agencies plans (highway department); (12) attendance at any meetings pertaining to village matters (Metropolitan Sanitary District and highway department); (13) providing developers with list of existing facilities; (14) review of builders' plans to check for conformity; and (15) inspecting developments to check for conformity.

In other business, the board passed on payment of $548.78 to village architect Robert Curtis for the new municipal building. Curtis reported that the building is on schedule.

Golf or gas capital?

ORLAND PARK — "Does this village want to be known as the Gas Village of the world rather than the Golf Center of the world?" Rosy Cosentino asked the village board of trustees on Feb. 28. The owner of Rosy's Gas Station spoke for the gas station owners and operators in town in expressing concern about the number of gas station permits being approved by the village.

Cosentino questioned the wisdom of permitting so many stations before the opening of the shopping center attracts enough business to warrant them. He added that the stations in the village are now losing business. "Are we giving the dealers and owners who live in Orland an even break?" he said.

Village President Melvin Doogan replied that under the present ordinance a gas station cannot be kept out of certain areas that are zoned commercial provided it meets village building requirements. He added plans are pending for a station on the southwest corner of 143rd st. and LaGrange Rd. A permit has been issued for a station on the Merrill Cooper property on LaGrange Rd. according to Doogan. In addition a Gas City is slated for 144th Pl. and LaGrange Rd.

The board has authorized Village Attorney Raymond Pieper to draw up pages in the classes of business zoning so as to give the village more control. Passing this zoning ordinance amendment will not allow the village to withdraw gas permits already guaranteed.

Ted Voss, president of Catalina Builders, presented a design study for his 95 acres of commercial property on the east side of Harlem Ave. from 154th to 159th St. The plan, which was basically an overall street layout of the commercial, with relation to the parcel west of Harlem zoned multi-family, was referred to the planning commission. Voss said if he can get approval for the overall plan he can proceed with drawing up more detailed plans.

Two ordinances were passed during the evening. One established the intersection of Fairway and Birch Streets as a four-way stop with a $100 penalty for conviction of the violation. The other acknowledged the annexation of the Meade property at 131st St. and Southwest Hwy.

The expected sign ordinance amendment was tabled until March 6.

In another matter, Pieper urged the board to determine the correct date of the final plans of Bee Dee Builder's Clearview subdivision. Several revisions of plans have been made and a correct date is required for legal record. Bee Dee received permits to build four model homes.

In other action, the application for a business license for the Prairie House Garden Center, 15151 Harlem, was placed in committee. Nine of the 25 remaining sewer population use permits were authorized to go to the Burger King. Building permits totaling $350,000 were approved. Edmund Burke and Associates were authorized to draw up the zoning map. Corinne Carpenter was appointed as a part-time policeman.

The recommendation of the planning commission to reject the Vanderploeg land use plan was accepted.

Water proposal related

OAK FOREST — Trustee Dennis O'Connor issued a report on the Lake Michigan proposal to the Oak Forest board Monday night.

O'Connor had been representing Oak Forest in discussions with Tinley Park and Oak Lawn, which resulted in a proposal from Oak Lawn to supply Lake Michigan water to Oak Forest and Tinley Park.

Subsequent discussions between the treasurers, engineers, and attorneys of Oak Forest and Tinley Park resulted in a counter proposal which has been submitted to Oak Lawn and includes the following points which are considered of critical importance:

1. Protection from over expansion of the water system.
2. The right to maintain alternative water supplies in case of emergency.
3. Equitable rights in the system which might include bond interest accounts, depreciation, and surplus accounts.

4. A purchase rate which is acceptable as reasonable to the residents of both communities.

O'Connor anticipates that negotiations will be completed within 60-days. At that time he will inform the board of the outcome, and request a formal public hearing.

Police Commissioners in removing former Oak Forest chief of police Oliver B. Christensen has been upheld by a judgment order issued by circuit judge Edward Egan on Feb. 22.

Still unresolved is the amount of back pay to which Christensen may be entitled. In this matter it will be necessary for him to file a mandamus action and go through a hearing to determine the amount.

Christensen and several other officers were suspended from the police department over three years ago on a variety of charges brought by the fire and police commission. Since that time all of the other officers involved have been exonerated.

The board voted to grant seven building permits to Medema Builders for homes in the area of 155th and Ridgeland Avenue.

Mayor Bernard J. Kelly had ordered the withholding of permits in the area for several months pending repair of defects in the Ridgeland Avenue sewer system.

In granting the permits the board stipulated that repairs were to be completed as soon as reasonably possible, and that a final inspection be requested by the builders within 10 days thereafter. A sewer and water hookup to the homes cannot be made until repairs are approved.

Trustee Robert Wheeler served as mayor pro tem at the board meeting in the absence of Mayor Kelly who is in Alaska.

ILLINOIS EDITORS' TRAFFIC SAFETY SEMINAR

ELIGIBLE FOR ONE OF TEN $500 CHICAGO MOTOR CLUB SCHOLARSHIP AWARDS

HIGH SCHOOL SENIORS' ESSAY CONTEST

(Editor's Note: The following is a traffic safety essay prepared by Paul Behrman, Providence High School senior from Tinley Park. Paul is one of the finalists in the Illinois Editors' Traffic Safety Seminar essay contest and is eligible for one of 10 $500 Chicago Motor Club scholarship awards.)

By Paul Behrman
Providence High School Senior

Traffic safety rests in the hands of every driver in the community. The responsibility for the success or failure is a direct reflection of the attitude, ability, and experience of those involved. Naturally, the inexperience of the teen-age faction hampers the credibility of such a record. Therefore, efforts to instill the qualities associated with a good driver must be initiated. An attempt must be made to prepare young drivers with the confidence of experience. In other words, an intensive campaign to develop a healthy attitude, strengthen driving ability, and hasten skills relative to experience must be instituted on a worthwhile scale.

The intensity of such a program must be aimed at the inexperience of the teen-age group. All accidents revolve around this single, determining factor of experience.

Experience and situation knowledge is a key factor in reducing safety records. Since these skills are lacking in teen-agers, the campaign must appeal to the younger group of licensed drivers and generate an attitude of courtesy and center on the necessity of defensive driving skills.

The hypothesis of a safe driving campaign is not an original idea. Previous programs have been conducted; some of which operated on a shock-value level. Such campaigns relied on drastic measures to bring about an awareness of driving fundamentals. Safety programs based on this assumption were considered successful.

The significance of a number of the tactics employed in these campaigns may still be applicable. Namely, the painting of a white cross at the scene of a fatal accident or the placing of a demolished automobile in prominently traveled areas thereby making drivers aware of the consequences of neglectful driving habits.

While these proposals may not relate to appreciations of today's generation some may be incorporated in any program. However, consideration could be given to other possibilities which might generate an appeal among the teen-age faction of licensed drivers.

Stress on the need for implementing the skills taught and supposedly learned in driver education curriculum would serve as a universal appeal factor. Another aspect of the campaign might confront drivers with results stemming from neglect of maintenance of regulatory signals. For instance, a commercial, displaying the consequences if a stop sign was not installed on a much traveled roadway, would be a worthwhile announcement.

Probably a more appealing aspect of any youth-oriented campaign would be the use of individuals with whom young persons affiliate themselves.

Therefore, a conclusion reveals that the possibilities connected with a driver safety program are vast. However, their success or failure is a very flexible consequence.

Appeal is a key factor and must motivate the individual driver. Unfortunately, driver safety is not an exact, controllable program. Instead, the absorption of helpful and needed information is strictly an individual alternative and it is this variable factor that demands an intensive campaign.

"If you don't like me, you'll vote it down again, and I'll have to go to school on half days."

(These words were spoken to a father by a young child from School District 140)

The school district has been attempting to pass a referendum for additional building and it has been voted down several times. The school district is located in an area with little, or none, commercial, industry or manufacturing tax dollars going into the school coffers. The district is in financial straits and overcrowded.

However, when a young child comes home from school, and tells her fa-

Editor:

The decision of the State of Illinois not to close 159th Street is now known. The City of Oak Forest is happy that state highway department officials have found it possible to keep this major artery of our community open during construction.

I would like to personally, and on behalf of the City of Oak Forest, particularly thank State Representative Donald A. Moore for his efforts in this matter. I know that representative Moore devoted his entire attention to this matter from the special meeting of Feb. 8 until he was able to announce the highway department's decision on Feb. 12.

In no way do I intend to minimize the efforts of State Representatives Anthony Scariano and Leland Rayson, Mayor John Dunn of Tinley Park, or the efforts of the many businessmen along 159th Street whose businesses might have been bankrupt by such a closing. I know that many people, including Oak Forest Trustees

Herald editorial

To mold a child's mind

ther that he must not like her because the school cannot pass a referendum for additional building, there is "something rotten in the State of Education."

No child is not going to come up with a conclusion like this without some adult propaganda.

Now, the people pay for the schools. The people pay for the paper used by school districts to inform parents of the need for additional buildings. The people pay the salaries of office workers who help put out the literature regarding referendums. The people pay for the auditoriums used quite often for "telling it like it is" sessions regarding referendums. The people pay for everything that is "in favor" of the passage of a referendum. The people pay, and pay, and pay. Are we now being asked to pay not only in dollars but with the respect of our children?

Who has any right to instill in a child's mind the thought that their mother or father does not like them because a school district cannot pass a referendum?

No one has this right.

To whoever has been guilty of telling a child that any voting act on their parents part is significant of parental love, we say, Beware. Dollars are replaceable — but, our children's minds are not for sale!

Wheeler and Sana exerted their efforts on behalf of the benefit of our community.

I do believe that special commendation is deserved by representative Moore and I take this opportunity to publicly say so.

I believe that the citizens of Oak Forest have been most ably represented by Don Moore in this matter.

BERNARD J. KELLY, MAYOR
City of Oak Forest

Dear Editor:

We read with disgust and revulsion your recent news story and direct quotations by the president Jack Hill of District 142 School Board regarding the passage of our bond issue.

In all fairness to your readers and your newspaper it is mandatory for us to set the facts straight.

According to Mr. Hill, the District 142 bond issue could not be promoted until after District 228 bond issue came to a vote. We find it strange that no mention of the District 142 bond issue came before the board until January 18. Are we lead to believe that District 142 bond issue was a spur-of-the-moment decision, or what?

And isn't it funny that the day after District 142 bond issue passed, the president of our school board put a "for sale" sign in front of his house. Not to mention the fact that two additional members have had their homes for sale for many weeks.

Another paragraph quoted Jack Hill and his desire to have something built by September, 1973, it appeared that Mr. Hill was the soul member of this seven man board.

To quote Samuel Clemens "In the first place, God made idiots. This was for practice. Then he made school boards."

Remember, there will be three openings on District 142 Board. On election day Saturday, April 8, 1972.

MR. AND MRS. HARRY W. GILBERT

Couple mark 25th year

MOKENA — Mr. and Mrs. Harry W. Gilbert will be celebrating their Silver Wedding Anniversary on March 8. The Gilberts have three children, Tom, 19, a student at Olivet Nazarene College, Kansas; Elaine, 21, a student at Ray Vogue School, Chicago; and Brad, 23, an Installer-Repairman for Illinois Bell Telephone Co., who resides with his wife, Carmon in Mokena.

Mrs. Gilbert, the former Lora Milligan,

Highland, Ind., is a teacher at Palos Park School District 118 and is president of the Palos Education Association. Harry is an engineer for Illinois Bell Telephone Co. and is the president of the International Nazarene Amateur Radio Fellowship. An open house is being planned by their children from 2-6 p.m. Sunday, March 5 at 11943 Josephine Drive, Mokena. Friends are invited to attend.

BOCA code lists data

WESTHAVEN — In adopting the BOCA Building Code, the Village of Westhaven hopes to broaden its building requirements. Up to now, Westhaven has had the Suburban Building Code of 1957 in effect, which is specifically for single family residents and duplex houses.

The BOCA code deals with every phase of building, residential, multiple family and commercial. The data is spelled out specifically in four hundred and sixty eight pages.

As Westhaven grows it will keep up with surrounding villages in respect to variations to be added to the BOCA code.

WESTHAVEN — Recently an Inter-governmental Committee was created in the village of Westhaven to act as liaison between local government units.

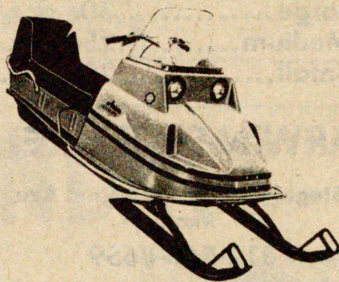

The committee will share information concerning laws, procedures, available equipment, techniques, plans and activities with surrounding villages. In general to promote intergovernmental cooperation.

Ten Westhaven residents have volunteered to serve on the committee, which will consist of three members serving for a one year period. The Public Service Committee will interview applicants and make recommendations to the village board for final approval.

WESTHAVEN — The Westhaven Homeowners Athletic Committee is sponsoring a Candlelight Bowl, Saturday, March 25, at the Oak Forest Bowl. Cost of the evening will be $10 per couple, which will include food.

Proceeds from the evening will benefit the Athletic Committee's future programs.

CWU to celebrate world prayer day

ORLAND/TINLEY — Church Women United in the Palos, Orland and Tinley Park areas will observe World Day of Prayer, the international celebration of faith and unity among Christian women on Friday, March 3, at Orland Park United Methodist Church, 9955 W. 144th St., at 1:15 p.m.

The theme, to be used in similar gatherings in 169 countries, is "All Joy Be Yours."

"Since the first small gatherings in the United States 85 years ago, the idea of united prayer by women around the world from sun to sun has increasingly captured the imagination of community groups. Today, World Day of Prayer can be described as the most important ecumenical occasion during the year. This celebration is the most widely observed activity of Church Women United, which is the ecumenical expression of Protestant, Orthodox and Roman Catholic women who wish to mobilize around common goals and channel their energies into effective action. The goal of Church Women United is to form a visible fellowship of believers in Christ, and move in every community and nation as instruments of reconciling love," according to the Rev. Leon Leatherman of the host church. There are 2,300 units of CWU in the United States.

"This year's theme, All Joy Be Yours, is designed to raise the consciousness of the participant that the joy found in Christ is transcendent, permeating all of life no matter what conditions prevail. Just as the joyful reality of God's faithfulness and care can break through the dismal or oppressive conditions that exist in the world, so Christ's coming as man can break through the barrier between the sacred and the secular," Pastor Leatherman said.

Sister May Anne Hoppe, Instructor of Theology at Mundelein College, will bring the message, "An Affirmation of Joy." She will speak about the common bond of prayer and Scripture which believers in Christ have.

The World Day of Prayer offering goes into a fund called Intercontinental Mission — the process by which CWU participates in a ministry to people all over the world. The people and places to whom funds are granted include women and children in need of education and better nutrition, minority women in new careers, 13 women's colleges in Asia and the Near East, international students, American Indians and Spanish-speaking people, migrants, refugees, people on vacation in National Parks, future church leaders interested in ecology, and women leaders in Africa and Latin America.

The work accomplished by the use of these funds includes the training of health and nutrition workers who then hold workshops in villages, the training of rural women overseas to participate in the social and economic development of their own countries, the preparation of indigenous literature in countries where many people are newly literate, the subsidizing of minority groups seeking self-development and self-determination, and peace-building through cooperation with the United Nations and international conferences.

Villages discuss lake water purchase

By Jean Wille

TINLEY PARK — Representatives from Tinley Park and Oak Forest met Thursday, Feb. 24, to discuss the purchase of Lake Michigan water through a contract with Oak Lawn.

Also present at the special meeting were legal and engineering representatives from Oak Lawn.

Trustees Richard Durkin, Tinley Park, and Dennis O'Connor, Oak Forest, represented their villages in the discussion.

O'Connor stated, "It has been a long and difficult road to reach the point of discussing an actual proposal with Oak Lawn regarding water supply."

Durkin mentioned that Tinley Park is interested in formulating a plan "that will be sufficient for the village's inevitable growth."

Both trustees said that they have been impressed and pleased with the joint efforts and common desires of all parties during the two-year study of water sources and potential supplies.

Oak Lawn representatives replied, after pursuing the co-proposal and financial considerations, that they were not at present, in any position to give definite answers or commitments.

Durkin answered that he and O'Connor did not expect any immediate answers but that the proposal was the first step in the final decision making process. Although more meetings may be necessary before any final agreements can take place, according to Durkin, "we hope that we can collectively move to the final agreement quickly."

Points under discussion included reserve funds during the life of the project and at the end of a 30-year period (this includes bonding interest, depreciation and surplus account); fluctuation of rates at the end of the 30 years; possibility of additional users of the system; maintenance costs; size of line; and periodic review of contracts.

Blackhawks top Rangers, 5-1

GINGERWOOD — The Gingerwood Athletic Association's Friday night hockey games at the Morton-Gingerwood School drew a larger crowd than usual last week and the fans weren't disappointed. In the first game between the Rangers and the Blackhawks, the Hawks were the first to score when Bill Stadden fired a 10 foot shot between the legs of the Ranger goalie with six minutes gone in the first period. This turned out to be the only score of the first period as both teams tightened up their defenses. The Rangers tied the score in the first 90 seconds of the second period when Doug Kurecki came racing and fired a three foot backhand shot as he went by the net. At the end of the second period it was tied one to one. The third period saw bloopers goals which broke the game wide open for the Hawks. Fifteen seconds into the third period a shot was made by Hawk John Evancho from behind the Ranger net that lit on it's edge and rolled around the far side of the net and in for a score. Then three minutes later Blackhawk Scott Fencil took a pass and jammed home a three footer from a 45 degree angle. At four and one half minutes Hawk Bill Stadden punched home a rebound that the Ranger goalie had just stopped. With just two minutes left in the game the Hawks put the game out of reach when Blackhawk Scott Fencil made a 6 footer around a jammed up Ranger net. The final score read Blackhawks 5, Rangers 1.

The second game matched the Canadians against the Bruins. Three minutes into the first period Canadian John Morgan scored, with a nine foot lifting slap shot. Three minutes later Bruin Mike Babecki tied the score with a rebound near the side of the net. The second period John Morgan put the Canadians into the lead again with a 30 foot shot that bounced up and past the outstretched hand of the Bruin goalie. That was all of the scoring until seven minutes of the third period when Bruin Jeff Lyons made a 10 foot lifting slap shot that was partially blocked from the Canadian goalie's view. With the score tied both teams fought to regain the lead. With just 15 seconds left in the game Bruin Bruce Kurecki made a shot that the Canadian goalie blocked as he came out of position. Kurecki slammed in the rebound to give the Bruins the win. The final score was Bruins 3, Canadians 2.

Sandburg swimmers set 3 school marks

WINNETKA — As expected, Hinsdale Central romped to its sixth straight, State Swimming Title last weekend.

Though they lost 32 points when their first place 200-yard medley relay team was disqualified, The Red Devils still managed to outscore second place Peoria Richwoods by 98 points.

Carl Sandburg finished in a tie for 38th place with one point the Eagles carried home three school records.

Andy Merz earned the lone point for the Eagles in the 200-yard freestyle, with a "magnificent race," said Eagle Coach Allen Gillberg. Merz' time of 1:51.4 established a new Eagle varsity record. The old mark of 1:53.1 was held by Terry Brazel.

Freshman Dave Rosken set a Sandburg mark in the 200-yard Individual Medley with a time of 2:08.8, breaking the mark of 2:10.7 set two years ago by Mark Kaptur. Prosken finished 18th in the race and was praised by Coach Gillberg saying, "It is quite an accomplishment for a freshman."

In the 50-yard Freestyle George Merijohn finished 16th in what Coach Gillberg described "probably the toughest race in the meet." Merijohn's time of 22.9 narrowly missed the qualification for the finals of 22.8.

In the 100-yard Freestyle Merijohn again narrowly missed the finals by three tenths of a second with a time of 50.6. His time tied the current Eagle record which he holds.

Freshman Allen Gillberg Jr., also set a varsity mark with a time of 4:02.3 in the 400-yard Freestyle event. Gillberg finished 16th and missed the finals by less than two seconds.

Providence out of style in regional cage play

MARSEILLES — When your used to one style it isn't always easy to adopt to another style, be it in world of fashion, or on a basketball court.

Providence ran amok of the latter in Class A regional basketball play against Seneca at Marseilles last week, and it meant the end of regional play for the Celts.

The Celts, who are members of the Private School League are used to playing defense with the hands, a game style where contact is legal as long as it does not impede the opponents progress.

In the regional Providence found out that the Seneca style is to play defense with the feet making very little contact. It was that kind of a game that the officials called as Providence had 33 fouls to 12 for Seneca, and Seneca won 64-59.

The Celts just couldn't adjust to the closer official calls, as four of their regulars and one reserve fouled out. The fifth started Steve Gant played the final 5:32 with four fouls on him.

Providence lost Len Branchaw and Roy King on fouls early in the game. Stopped in their shuffle offense by Seneca, the Celts without Branchaw, and King weren't able to get their alternate 1-4 offense working.

The Celts battled to the end coming back from a 41-31 third quarter deficit to trail only 56-55 with 2:20 remaining in the game. Seneca made it 60-55 with 2:06 left, then neither team scored for a minute and sixteen seconds.

In that time Providence got two shots but missed both times.

Gant was the teams top scorer with 15 points followed by Joe Prieboy with 14 and King with 10.

Orland stars plan for Puerto Rico play

Orland Park's OYA basketball all-stars will compete in the Chicago Heights basketball tournament for nine, 11, and 13 year-olds. The tournament will be held March 11 in Chicago Heights. Three teams will compete for Orland Park, with eight to 16 teams in each tournament. This is the beginning for the little all-stars from Orland as they hope to compete in many other tournaments. The national tourney goes all the way to Puerto Rico.

Tinley checkmates Evergreen Park

Monday night, Feb. 21st, the Chess Team defeated Evergreen Park, 6-2. The nine Tinley Park men with Bryant Fujimoto as their captain have a fine record.

Future chess matches will be held at TPHS in Room 132 at 3:30 p.m. on March 2 against Lincoln-Way and on March 14 and 21 against Oak Forest.

Knights, Rich share crown

HOMEWOOD — The Lincoln-Way basketball team in general, and Terry Ryan specifically, made sure the Knights earned a share of the Southwest Suburban conference title Friday night.

Ryan, one of the area's top candidates for all-state honors, had his finest game ever Friday in leading the Knights to a 77-64 win over Homewood.

The 6-5 Knight center set a school scoring mark with 47 points and pulled in 22 rebounds against the Vikings. Lincoln-Way, Rich East, and Homewood had gone into their final conference games Friday tied for first in the conference, each with 11-2 marks.

The win Friday knocked the Vikings out of a share of the title and left the Knights co-champ with Rich, as the Rockets beat Bremen. The Knights open their bid for a regional basketball crown tomorrow March 1 at Romeoville at 7:30 p.m., against conference foe Sandburg. This will be the third meeting between the two teams this season. The Knights hold 70-43, and 73-62 wins over the Eagles this season.

Winner of the Lincoln-Way game will play for the winner of the Lockport-Romeoville game, Friday, March 3, at 7:30 p.m. for the regional title, and a trip to the Joliet Central Sectional, March 7-8 and 10.

Barring a major upset the title match should come down to a battle between Lincoln-Way and Lockport. Hosting Romeoville has a 1-21 season record, and isn't expected to pose too much of a problem for Lockport which boasts a 19-3 mark and finished in a three way tie for the Illinois 8 Conference title.

Bachmann takes 5th

NORMAL — Mike Bachmann, took fifth place in the 126-pound state wrestling competition held at Illinois State University last weekend.

Bachmann was the only Lincoln-Way wrestler to qualify for the state competition. The Knight matman opened with a pin of Jay Valerio, of Morris, and a 2-0 over Mark Hyeman of Forest View. Bachmann lost a semi-final bout to Aaron Haley of Jacksonville 3-0, and then pinned Kevin Neibur, of Granite for fifth place.

Swim group sinks Thornridge 338-235

TINLEY PARK — The Tinley Park age group swim team, coached by George Gillberg defeated the Thornridge age group team in a swim meet held Feb. 27 at Tinley Park high school. The score was Tinley Park 388 and Thornridge 235.

Tinley Park won 14 of 16 relay events and 33 of 43 individual races. First place finishers in free style were: Patrick Pauly, Sharon Ahrendt, Sue Lindstrom, Joe Catalano, Karen Walsh, Therese Palmer, Jeff Fredette, Barbara Zirkelbach, Rhonda Shaw, and Tony Milani. Vicki Shaw, Paul Opalacz, and Jeanne Blitvich won individual medley races. In the breaststroke Sharon Ahrendt, Jack Kraus, Rhonda Shaw, Joe Catalano, Dawn Muys, Paul Hubbell, Patricia Miller, Keith Nix, and Jeanne Blitvich were winners. Kim Noreen, Brent DeVries, Gary Younger, Karen Walsh, Mark Opalacz, and Colleen Guilfoyle won backstroke events. In butterfly races Linda Haslinger, Jack Kraus, Eddie Heelan, Vicki Shaw, and Paul Opalacz were first place finishers.

Sandburg wrestlers beaten at Normal

Carl Sandburg's wrestlers placed three grapplers downstate after winning the district crown two weeks ago. Jim Webster, the 167-pounder, won his first match in state competition beating Dave Eggleston of Sycamore 6-2. Webster then fell to his next opponent, Steve Day of Normal High School, 8-1. Webster wrestled brilliantly in a comeback try before losing 8-7.

Dwain Capodice, a 138-pounder, lost his first match to Mickey Roth of Joliet Catholic. Capodice and Roth were tied 6-6 and went into overtime where Roth pinned Capodice. Mike Kettman, Sandburg's third representative, lost his first match also. Kettman fell to East Moline's heavyweight Rich Girt 13-6.

Hershey High School of West Chicago went on to claim the state championship for the second time in a row. All in all the Eagles completed a very successful season by winning the district crown and sending three wrestlers to the state meet. Sandburg is coached by Don Schultz.

Tinley helps Rich to title

TINLEY PARK — With a 2-12 league record you don't figure to be much of a factor in any conference basketball race.

Friday, however, Tinley Park lost to Thornton Fractional North in their final game of the season, in a game that gave Fractional undisputed title of the Southeast Suburban conference.

While Fractional was winning Bradley was beating Rich Central. Rich was tied for the league lead with Fractional going into the final game.

Thornton Fractional North thus clinched the conference title with a 71-63 win over Tinley Park. The Titans closed their regular season with a 6-17 mark, and will take on Homewood in the first round of the class AA regional tourney at Homewood. The t e a m s meet tomorrow, Wednesday, March 1, at 7:30 p.m. winner will meet the winner of the Rich Central-Hillcrest game for the regional title Friday, March 3, at 7:30 p.m.

Against TFFN Randy Lindstrom lead the attack with 20 points followed by Kirby Bullard with 16. The Titans again lost the battle of the boards, being outrebounded 51-28.

Eagle cagers lose 9th

Carl Sandburg's varsity basketball team dropped its ninth game in a row last Friday night at Evergreen Park losing 58-51 to the Mustangs. Sandburg held a 11-4 advantage at the end of the first quarter and a 23-22 lead at half-time. Evergreen Park then surged ahead in the third quarter to take a 41 to 34 lead.

Guard Mike Tesaro was the leading scorer for Evergreen Park with 20 points. The Eagles were led by Art Crummie's 20 points. Junior Vince Curlewski also chipped in with 10 points.

The loss leaves the Eagles in a sixth place tie with Evergreen Park in the conference with 3-11 records. Sandburg will go into regional competition with a 5-18 record against co-champion Lincoln-Way. The Knights beat the Eagles both times during conference competition during the year. The regional game will be played at Romeoville at 7:30 Wednesday night. The winner then will play the Romeoville Lockport Central winner for the regional championship Friday night.

Sandburg sophomores finished their conference season on a happy note, beating Evergreen 46-42 to give them a 8-6 record for the year and an overall 9-9 mark. The young Eagles thus finished in a tie for third place with Oak Lawn behind Rich East and Homewood-Flossmoor. The Eagles were led by Steve Liedtke's 14 points and Cary Pozulp's 11.

A Thought To Remember

BY BOB HIRSCH

People in general know more about the universe today than ever before. In our constantly advancing space technology, we see the spectacle of uncountable celestial systems that causes speechless wonder. The Milky Way, for example, has more than 30,000,000 suns, many of them larger than our sun — which incidentally is a million and a half times larger than our earth. Scientists tell us there are millions of billions of heavenly bodies in our own galaxy. It is all beyond human imagination. The mathematical exactness of every detail in the firmament in which the sun, moon and stars exists is a phenomenon without equal. Man has vast knowledge but NO MAN knows what lies beyond our horizon in the infinite stretch of space.

It is illogical to suppose the phenomena of all this wondrous creation is something that just came about by accident — or by explosion of something or other. No one but God can make something from nothing. There was a beginning. He started it. He sustains it. And He can change or destroy it any time He decides to do so . . .

Arbury Hills

By Marie Hovi
(312) 479-5740

ARBURY HILLS — The Arbury Hills Civic Association is planning a Stunt Night for April 28-29. They are looking for ideas and help for skits, plays, stunts and etc. If you want more information and details, please call Mrs. Pat Roberts at 479-9504 or Mrs. Betty Lou Botta at 479-2206. Talented or not, there is something for all, everyone is welcome. The cost will be adults $1 and students 50c.

The Civic Association is also inviting you to attend the Shamrock Box Social on March 18 at 8 p.m. at the Arbury Hills School on Beechnut Drive and Magnolia Street. For more details, please contact Ed. Levenson at 479-9633 or Mrs. Phyllis Leto at 479-5306.

The girls of Cadette Troop 336 are busy beavers again this year. They have numerous service projects such as baby sitting for the Mokena PTA and the Arbury Hills PTO, and sometimes for the Frankfort Methodist Church. They also helped the Arbury Hills PTO with the fall Tupperware party. The girls had a party for the little ones at Halloween and took the children out for the "trick or treat". They made name tags, and decorated Christmas ornaments.

For the coming year they are practicing for two events coming up. One is March 9 when the Arbury Hills PTO will hold its March meeting and the girls will present a skit. On March 12 they will do a skit for the Girl Scout Rally.

They are working on crafts to earn money to go on an extended camping trip to Arkansas. Smile pillows are the items at the moment to be sold. Please lend a financial hand.

The Girl Scouts of the two Junior Troops 103 and 289 and the Cadettes of 336 are taking orders for the annual cookie sales. Orders will be taken until March 4. If you have not been contacted, please ask your nearest Girl Scout.

The First Nighters will have the meeting of the group at the home of Mrs. Jill Ray, Beechnut Drive this Thursday evening, March 2, beginning at 8 p.m.

The Altar and Rosary Society of St. Marys of Mokena is sponsoring a family smorgasbord from 2 p.m. until 6 p.m. on Sunday, March 5 in the Cow Palace on 115th Avenue behind the church. Donations for the dinner will be adults $2 and 50c for children under 12.

The Summit Hill Parent-Teacher Organization is having its meeting at the school next Thursday evening, March 9, beginning at 8 p.m.

815-469-5617

The "Italian Night" dinner party held in the club house last Friday night was a roaring success. More than 265 members and their guests attended and were served an Italian feast second to none in recent Prestwick history.

Congratulations to Edward Bruske of Fairway Lane and Jim Dillon of Prestwick Drive on being named recently to the dean's list at Joliet Junior College. Being named to the Dean's list requires a grade point average between 3.0 and 4.0. Ed Bruske studies in Switzerland for a year recently. It must have been a rewarding experience.

Welcome to our many new readers on Aberdeen Road. Jeff Klare will be delivering THE HERALD to you for the next month with our compliments. We invite you to subscribe after that date. If you receive the HERALD by mail, we will cancel the mail delivery and credit your delivery boy, just tell Jeff. Our Prestwick column will always be here for very local news and, of course, Jeff will appreciate the patronage.

Welcome to our new neighbors, Paul and Diane Dillon and family on Prestwick Drive. The Dillons have three children: Jim, 19, who attends Joliet Junior College, Amy, 14, who attends Lincoln Way High School and Mark, 8, who attends Chelsea School. Paul is an engineer for the Simmons Mattress Co. of Munster, Ind. He is director of their technological center responsible for all research and development. Diane is a graduate of St. Xavier College with a master's degree in Nursing. She presently teaches nursing at the Kankakee Junior College. The Dillon family is originally from Hazelcrest.

Northbrook has its famous speed skaters of Olympic fame and Prestwick may soon have its own hockey stars, if we don't already. Gary and Donald Martin of Durham Drive were instrumental two weeks ago in seeing to it that their team, the St. Jude Hockey team of Dolton, will be playing for the state championship on Feb. 27 in Northbrook against Northbrook.

Gary scored the "hat trick" (three goals in one game) and Donald shot the winning goal against the Lake Forest Vikings. All this in one game, from one family and their brother Jeff is coming up fast. Jeff's team, the St. Jude Squirts, also will be playing in the tournament on Feb. 27 seeking third or fourth place.

Jeff got his start at hockey by playing with the sons of Blackhawk hockey team great Bobby Hull when the family resided in Elmhurst. Gary and Donald started at the Michael Kirby Hockey Rink and have gone to greater things. Congratulations and best wishes to them. We will report the results of their title game next week.

As most of us already know, Prestwick will host the Junior Amateur Golf Tournament of the Womens Western Golf Association, Aug. 21 to 25. The hard working women of Prestwick guaranteeing the success of this very prestigious event are Mrs. Art Miller, chairman; Mrs. Darwin Kal, Co-chairman; Mrs. Richard Klare, registration; Mrs. William J. Flynn, reservations; Mrs. Joseph Bellington, hostess; Mrs. Edmund Burke, information; Mrs. Charles Klasing, publicity; and Mrs. Irving Rudman, driving contest.

If you have moved to Prestwick within the last four or five months, please let us know. We would like to let your neighbors know about you.

Irish choose officers

WILL COUNTY — The Irish-American Club of Will County elected its new officers for 1972 at its meeting held Wednesday, Feb. 23, in the Cantigny Post VFW in Joliet.

A turnout of over 50 persons elected Larry Ryan of Joliet as president, George Cushing of Joliet as vice-president, Bill Mulchay of Joliet as treasurer and they re-elected Bill Fitzgerald of Joliet to another term as secretary. Leo J. Meehan, also of Joliet, is the outgoing president. He was elected to a one year term to the Board of Directors.

Leo J. Meehan and George Cushing, co-chairmen of the organization's 1972

St. Patrick's Day dinner-dance being held March 18 in Providence High School in New Lenox, announced that almost 800 tickets were presently being sold for the event. They reported that this year's celebration will probably be the biggest ever for Will County.

Meehan said that although a limited number of tickets will be available at the door, this method of purchase is not recommended due to the fact that a dinner is to be served and time must be allowed to purchase and prepare the food. Traditional corned beef, cabbage and ham will be served. Anyone interested in purchasing tickets may contact Mr. Meehan at 815-725-1547.

Larry Ryan, newly elected president of the club, announced that the membership of the club was increasing each year but more members are most welcome. Dues are five dollars per year and one must be of Irish ancestry, either husband or wife. Call Leo Meehan for a membership application.

Oldsters pick new officers

MOKENA — The Senior Citizens of Mokena met at the Cow Palace on Sunday, Feb. 27.

Election of officers were held with the following being elected: Mrs. Irene Plecki, president; Milton Geuther, vice president; Mrs. Joe Raiser, secretary and Mrs. Lillian Boleman.

Short talks were given by Howard Ayers, Steve Sargeant and Mrs. Elizabeth McGuire of the Happy Hour Senior Citizens Club of New Lenox and Miss Mary Ryan from the Tinley Park Senior Citizens Club.

After the business meeting cards were played and refreshments were served.

Shovels snow, dies of heart attack

FRANKFORT — The snowstorm of last week was responsible for one death in the area. Ora Andrew, 409 Elm St., Connecticut Hills, was stricken with a heart attack after shoveling snow Wednesday morning and collapsed in his garage.

He was taken to St. James Hospital, Chicago Heights, by ambulance, but was dead on arrival.

Andrew was a real estate salesman for the Arthur T. McIntosh Co. and had been a resident of the area 35 years. He was a member of Circle Lodge, A.F. & A.M., of River Forest, and was a former member of the Oak Park Lions Club. He was born Aug. 8, 1889.

He is survived by his wife, Ruth, and two sons, Alvin, of Marion, O., and Virgil, of Decatur, Ind.

There was a special service conducted at the Frankfort Community Chapel, with the Rev. Eugene Bonham, pastor of the Frankfort United Methodist Church officiating.

Burial was in St. Louis.

The family requested memorials be sent to the Frankfort United Methodist Church building fund in lieu of flowers.

Marketing trends farm bureau topic

By Virginia Sass

NEW LENOX — The 58th annual meeting of the Will County Farm Bureau was held at Lincoln-Way Community High School recently. The meeting began with a roast beef dinner served family style to approximately 400 people. The invocation was given by the Rev. John Burger, pastor of Marley Community Church.

Marketing trends, present and future were discussed by the guest speaker, Jeff Gaines, director of marketing of the Illinois Agricultural Association, Bloomington, Ill.

At the business session five directors were elected. Four of them, Emmet Severson, Joliet; Frank Wesolowski, Wilmington; Norman Christiansen, Peotone; and Lester Schroeder, Peotone, were incumbents. The new member of the board is James Connell, Plainfield, who succeeded Lloyd Eberhard, Plainfield.

Earl Meisinger, the president, presided at the business meeting. Minutes of the 1971 meeting were read by the secretary, Lester Schroeder. Loren Sass, treasurer, gave the financial report. Reports were given by Meisinger and Eugene Malone, the executive secretary.

A plaque was presented to Mrs. Michael Quigley, district winner of the 1971 "Law and Order" essay contest.

The Will County Farm Bureau Women's Committee presented "The IAA Medical Skit." In the cast were Mrs. Loren Sass, Mrs. Norman Christiansen, Mrs. Edward Berens, Mrs. Robert Eaton, Mrs. Ivan Archibald, Mrs. James Tilsy, Mrs. Alfred Krapf and Mrs. James Connell. Entertainment was provided by "Kolage '72", a singing group from Joliet East High School, directed by Miss Arlene Nuti.

Mayors back Ogilvie

SPRINGFIELD — Three local mayors are among almost 200 mayors that have added their names to a statewide committee supporting the re-election of Governor Richard B. Ogilvie, it was recently announced.

The committee plans to sponsor local campaign activities in committee members' communities.

Mayors supporting Ogilvie include, George A. Nordstrom, Lockport; Will T. Tuttle, Mokena; and Joseph E. Hartung, New Lenox.

Providence girl gets good citizen award

NEW LENOX — A Mokena girl, Mary Schubert, a senior at Providence High School, has been presented with the Good Citizenship Award of the DesPlaines Valley Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution.

Miss Schubert was selected as the recipient for the award on the recommendation of her school, based on academic and extra curricular accomplishments. The presentation ceremony took place at the First Baptist Church, Joliet.

An "A" student, Miss Schubert was secretary of the sophomore class and president of the junior class. She also was section editor of Kelt, the yearbook, secretary of the Latin Club, was in the homecoming court and is a member of the National Honor Society. Miss Schubert also has served as a candystriper at St. Joseph Hospital, Joliet.

She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roger Schubert, 194th Street, and plans to attend the College of St. Teresa, Winona, Minn., after graduation from Providence.

MARY SCHUBERT

FRANKFORT — Midshipman First Class C. R. Davis, son of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Davis, has been named to the superintendent's list. He was also named Platoon Commander which grants special privileges. Upon graduation in June week ceremonies, he will receive a bachelor's degree and a commission in the Marine Corp.

FRANKFORT — The Trikena Neighborhood Girl Scouts are celebrating 60 years of Girl Scouting in America with their annual Birthday Rally. "It's A Small World" will be presented at 2 p.m. Sunday, March 12 at the Frankfort Grade School Gym. All parents of Girl Scouts are invited.

FRANKFORT — There will be roller skating again at Frankfort Grade School. It will begin Thursday night (March 2) and continue on succeeding Thursday evenings. The program has been arranged through the Frankfort Police Association.

There will be an hour of skating for the younger children — fifth grade and under, from 6:30-7:30 p.m. and two hours for those from sixth grade up — from 7:30 to 9:30. Adults are welcome in the sixth and up program, according to Officer Virgil Coleman, who is in charge of the program.

There will be an admission charge of 25 cents for the hour program and 50 cents for the older group. Skates can be rented at the school for 25 cents. Those who bring their own skates will only pay the admission charge.

The Police Association is appreciative of the cooperation and aid given in launching the project, Coleman said. There will be several groups making donations to the program, it was said.

FRANKFORT — Kevin Davis, son of Mr. and Mrs. Russel Davis, has returned to his base in the Panama Canal Zone after a 30 day leave with his parents. He is a member of the 550th Military Police Detachment 8th Special Force Ground Police.

FRANKFORT — Persons interested in the past, as well as the future, are invited to attend a meeting in the Frankfort Village Hall at 7:30 p.m. Thursday, March 9. The purpose is to discuss and possibly organize a historical society for the area.

There is the Will County Historical Society, but when representatives of the Frankfort library board began looking for source material for a history of Frankfort, they discovered it to be quite sparse, and the idea of a Frankfort Historical Society took root.

The result is the calling of the meeting March 9 and the idea has grown to covering the area rather than just Frankfort alone, so anyone in the area is invited.

For more information call Mr. or Mrs. Ralph Eisenbrandt, 469-2513; Mrs. Ted Gerndt, 469-2359, or Mrs. Jack Nordsell, 469-5066.

WILL COUNTY — It is incorrectly reported in the Feb. 23 issue that Robert R. Skopac, 335 Hutchins St., Joliet, was elected a vice-president of the Multiple Sclerosis Association of America. He was elected a vice-president of the Muscular Dystrophy Associations of America, Des Plaines Valley Chapter.

NEW LENOX — The office of the state superintendent of public instruction which has been making a check of school systems to ascertain if they are following the rules to prevent segregation of schools, has given New Lenox District 122 approval, which means that it will still be able to get financial aid.

NEW LENOX — The board of education of New Lenox Grade School District 122 has awarded a three-year contract to Lacet Corporation, of Mokena for transportation of pupils. The contract, with a base bid of $26.40 and an extra mile figure of 35 cents per mile, is effective at the beginning of the 1972-73 school year next September.

Five firms submitted sealed bids on the specifications that were applied to the New Lenox school transportation operation which requires 150 extra miles per day.

The bids were:

	Base Bid 25 miles per day	Extra Miles
Lacset	$26.40	35c
Dobczyk Bus	25.00	50c
Warning Bus	29.50	45c
Pfeifer Bus	34.40	34c
Crawford Bus	32.00	55c

The contracted transportation operation for the New Lenox schools involves 11 buses. In addition to the 11 buses contracted for the school owns and operates six buses. There are 1,780 children transported daily, to and from the seven public schools of the district at St. Jude School.

According to school officials an analysis of the bids submitted when applied to the transportation operation reveals a difference of $16,051.20 between the low and high.

NEW LENOX — Charles R. Stark, 106 Glennell, Mokena, who directs the choral work of the Lincoln-Way High School music department, has been selected to direct the School Chorus of America on its tour of Europe this summer.

Stark is an alumnus of the School Band of America, which was originated in 1959. The chorus feature was added in 1964.

A concert will be conducted at Lincoln-Way Monday, March 6, by Edward T. Harn, Bloomington, founding director.

Students interested in the European trip, should contact Stark at the school or Mokena. His home phone is 312-479-5800.

Scariano opposed to local income tax

PARK FOREST — State Representative Anthony Scariano (D., Park Forest), and candidate for the State Senate in the new Ninth District, announced that he would "oppose strenuously any bill permitting municipalities to levy a local income tax."

Under the Home Rule provisions of the 1970 Constitution, such a tax is permitted, but only with legislative approval, Scariano explained. "Mayor Richard J. Daley, after first intimating that he favors a city-wide income tax, later recanted and complained that he had been misunderstood," Scariano said.

"Whether or not the mayor means it or was misunderstood," the South Suburban legislator continued, "I shall work vigorously against such a proposal if one is introduced in the general assembly."

"A citywide income tax would not only affect Chicago residents, but would also obviously affect people working in the city," Scariano noted.

"I have always sympathized with the problems of the city," the Park Forest lawmaker said, "and I have long urged suburbanites not only to be sympathetic but helpful as well in resolving the city's tary and president, a member of the National problems. But our cities are not entirely the problem of the suburban resident; they are a statewide problem, indeed, a national problem, too."

"The task is to make sure that the burden is spread more equitably over all of the residents of the state and the nation," Scariano added.

"The state already gives Chicago and all other cities support," Scariano went on to say. "Twelve percent of the state income tax is shared with municipalities, distributed on a per capita basis."

"There is no reason why the federal government can't help, too, because, after all, the problems of the inner city are national in scope," Scariano said. "Therefore, more revenue sharing is the quickest and most practical way of helping to solve our urban problems."

"One splendid way to relieve the local property taxpayer — which is in line with what Mayor Daley and the rest of us want — is to have the state assume more of the burden of the cost of public education," the veteran legislator said. "This would give tax relief not only to the city of Chicago but to the whole state."

"We have been lagging in this as a state since before any of us can remember. Illinois has never assumed its share of the cost of the public schools, although every one of our state constitutions have made this the primary responsibility of the state."

"The state of Illinois contributes only 35 percent of the cost of public schooling today. At least seventeen other states comparable to Illinois in wealth and population contribute at least one-half of the money spent for schools," Scariano said.

"The time has come for the state to shoulder its fair share of the cost of public education and relieve the property taxpayer of his burden."

"The federal government can help by assuming the entire cost and administration of welfare, which is now almost bankrupting the states," he said. "This is the best program of revenue-sharing the congress can devise for the states, and it will enable them to divert present welfare funds to education, thus, in turn, making it possible for school districts to lower or at least stabilize property taxes, and, at the same time, eliminate the need for any local income tax."

Army offers flight program

OAKLAWN — The US Army has reopened its Warrant Officer Flight Training program. According to SSG Robert F. Dean, local Army Recruiter at Oak Lawn, Illinois, young men with an urge to fly are once again needed to man the Army's rotary aircraft.

"It takes months of sophisticated training to qualify as a Warrant Officer," explained the sergeant, "but once that's finished you'll be a full-fledged helicopter pilot and also an officer in the United States Army with all the respect and privileges due you."

To qualify for the WOFT program, a young man must be between the ages of 18-27. He must possess a high school diploma; a GED certificate will not suffice.

For further information on the Warrant Officer Flight Training program, see SSG Dean at his office located at 5246 W. 95th st.

Saint Michael children and young adult choir is holding a spaghetti dinner on Saturday, March 4 at 6 p.m. in the school's auditorium, 14335 Highland, Orland Park. The proceeds will be applied to the purchase of a church organ. Two-year old Melissa Dupont is shown testing the spaghetti ahead of time.

District 228 splits MH program

SOUTHWEST — School District 228 has split its educational program for the mentally handicapped students into two branches, at Tinley Park High School and Bremen High School, Midlothian. Bremen's program began September, 1971, under the direction of the Southwest Suburban Cook County Cooperative for Special Education. Prior to this the program was handled completely in Tinley Park.

At this time there are 28 freshmen and sophomore students enrolled at Bremen. There are presently 44 student slots in regular classes being filled by students in this program. Through a closely supervised curriculum and some pre-vocational training, the students are prepared to take their place in society as self-supporting citizens.

The entire student help program at Bremen cafeteria is handled through the special education program.

A pilot group of senior high school students are now participating in an innovative vocational program jointly sponsored by the Co-op, the Illinois Division of Vocational Rehabilitation, and Greer Technical Institute, Chicago.

The students will attend regular special education classes in the morning and three hours of active participation in the Greer program. The purpose of the project is to provide a four week orientation to each of five selected areas of work. Regular Greer classes are not in attendance at this time which will allow for concentrated effort on the part of the instructors.

Students will be instructed in automotive, refrigeration and air conditioning, welding, body and fender work and diesel mechanics. At the end of 20 weeks an evaluation process will help the student decide in which area he is most interested and for which he has the greatest aptitude.

In a pre-program orientation session some students appeared apprehensive about their participation in the Greer program. However, recordings were made at the first session and a marked decrease in apprehensions was noted for the program.

This is a "first" for the Co-op and Benjamin L. Braun, director, stated that this program is another example of the close relationship between special education co-operatives and other state agencies to provide experiences that give a student a feeling of pride while strengthening his sense of identity as a member of the community work force.

Charles Hull, co-ordinator for the special education program at Bremen said that a program such as District 228 has would be impossible, "without the cooperation of the entire faculty, staff and administration."

Sharing teacher duties with Hull are Sue Osborne, Bill Grabinski and Cecilia Cohen. Also working closely with the program are Raymond Clark, principal, Ed Roberts, assistant principal, Fran Peterson, assistant director of special education and Margaret Hale, supervisor.

Counseling responsibilities and regular class placement are handled by Homer Hulfactor, Bremen counselor.

Key branch banking foe

PARK FOREST — B. Robert Key, independent candidate for the Republican nomination for state representative from the 9th District, has taken a strong stand against branch banking.

He said that in addition to it being a means for the large, major banks to monopolize the industry, it would seriously endanger the existence of local banks which are the backbone of every community.

Key further said that these local institutions are more than cold marble and cold cash — they are organizations transacting business for the good and in the interests of the local community and that it is his belief branches of large banks whose headquarters are located elsewhere would have no interest whatsoever in the local communities or individuals.

He said that when he is elected he will strive to keep the security of the local banking system intact.

Three at Sandburg top teens

ORLAND PARK — Three Carl Sandburg high school students have been selected as Outstanding Teenagers of America for 1972, according to Dr. G.W. Davidson, principal.

Selection for the Outstanding Teenagers awards program automatically qualifies these students for further state, regional, national honors, and scholarships totaling $7,000. These nominees are, Randahl Bengtson, and Virginia Schutte of Orland Park, and Sandra Masel.

Randy Bengtson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Bengtson of 14521 Westwood Dr., Orland Park, is on the varsity basketball team, is involved in the concert and dance band, is president of the National Honor Society, and a member of Mu Alpha Theta. He has been accepted as a freshman for the fall semester at Purdue University.

Virginia Schutte, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph P. Schutte, 10055 - 143rd, Orland Park, is a member of the Pep Club, has been a cheerleader for two years, has been involved in the French Club as sectional Honor Society, the Future Teachers Association, and the Leo Club. Last summer she received the Orland Park Women's Club Allerton Art Award.

Sandra Masel, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ronald W. Masel, 7629 W. 123rd St., Palos Heights, is a member of Mu Alpha Theta and Pep Club. She has also participated in the Spanish Club, GAA and was in the Future Teachers Association Big Sister Program. She is presently an aide in the health room at Sandburg.

Nominated by their principals, the Outstanding Teenagers of America are chosen from individual schools across the country for excellence in community service and academic achievement.

The local students will now vie for the Outstanding Teenager of the Year Trophy to be presented by the state's governor. Similar trophies will be presented to winners in other states. The state winners are selected by the Outstanding Teenager Awards Selection Committee, in cooperation with the Board of Advisors.

The 50 state winners will be eligible for awards totaling $7,000. One boy and one girl will be chosen for national scholarships of $1,000 each to be used at the college or university of their choice. Ten regional winners will also be selected from the remaining state winners to receive $500 regional scholarships.

In recognizing the special talents of these Outstanding Teenagers, former Secretary of the Interior Walter J. Hickel said, "I congratulate you . . . You have been recognized for what you did yesterday and what you are today."

These Outstanding Teenagers also have the opportunity to become great national leaders and doers," President Nixon said in a congratulatory message to the nominees.

Mat teams prepare for New Lenox meet

NEW LENOX — The quadrangular wrestling meet held last weekend at West Chicago was a lengthy affair with 18 weight classes.

In preparation for the sectional tourney coming up this weekend at New Lenox each team was allowed to enter two boys in a weight class. Wrestling-backs were also a part of the meet so that some of the boys got to wrestle four times. Other schools besides the host and New Lenox were Morris and Hazel Crest.

The New Lenox team, under the direction of Coach Terry Weber, placed 14 wrestlers in the finals, with six of them finishing in first place.

Those taking firsts were Al Skiniotes, 55 pound, who took the championship by defeating his opponent 11 to 8 in the final match. David Jeffrey, 70 pounds, won an overtime match 1 to 0; Marek Criscione won easily at 75 pounds, with two pins. One pin came in 17 seconds.

Jim Steen, at 110 pounds, pinned his opponent easily in the finals; Chip Connor, 117 pounds, ran his record up to 24-4 by blanking his opponent 8-0.

Bill Tyner, at 127 pounds, won his third match of the day in an overtime battle on the referee's decision.

Taking second places were Vince Criscione, 50 pound; March Jackson, 65 pounds; Larry Wilmoth, 80 pounds; Steve Skiniotes, 85 pounds; Tom Norberg, 100 pounds; Jack Thatcher, 120 pounds; Bill Shroba, 145 pounds; Jose Forrest, heavy-weight. Thatcher almost upset Bob Cullen of Hazel Crest in one of the most exciting matches of the day. Cullen is undefeated and went on to win a final 4-3 victory over Forrest.

Third places were won by Shawn Mann, 50 pounds; Rodney Beaird, 60 pounds; Lee Krohn, 80 pounds, John Jackson, 90 pounds; Jim Wilmsen, 127 pounds and Mike Mager, 135 pounds.

Fourth places were taken by John Ather-ton, 55 pounds and Jerry Carrigan, 135 pounds.

Oakview hosts grade tourney

NEW LENOX — Oakview Junior High School of New Lenox will host the second annual sectional wrestling tournament for grade schools this Saturday, March 4.

Wrestling will begin at 8:30 a.m. and continue through the day. The tournament is open to any grade school boy who will not have turned 15 years of age before December, 1972. Weigh-ins for the tourney will be conducted Friday, March 3, from 4 to 7 p.m.

The entry form, proof of birthdate, and the 75-cent entry fee are to be turned in at the weigh-in Friday in Oakview School. The following weight classes have been established with a two-pound allowance in each class. The weights are: 60, 65, 70, 77, 83, 90, 97, 105, 112, 118, 125, 132, 138, 145, 152 and heavy weights.

Park sports going strong

TINLEY PARK — The Tinley Park District Recreation Programs are going strong even though adverse weather conditions impaired the construction of the Hockey sites at Brentowne and Lewis Parks, causing the cancellation of this year's Hockey Program. All registration fees for Hockey and Beginning Skating have been refunded.

Indoor programs in progress are the fifth and sixth grade boys' basketball program held at Kirby and Central schools on Thursday evenings, and the seventh and eighth grade boys' basketball program at Central school on Tuesday evenings.

All star teams from both of these programs will be competing at Country Club Hills Tournament on Saturday, March 11th.

Another highlight of this Program is the "Annual Father & Son Night," which will take place on Tuesday, March 14th. Participants and their Fathers will be bussed to the Chicago Stadium to see a basketball game between Chicago and Seattle.

Girls in 5th thru 8th grade have been participating in a program on Wednesday evenings, which will end on March 1st, at Central school.

Adults are also enjoying this season, with a men's basketball league on Tuesday evenings at the Tinley Park High School, and mixed volleyball at the Central School on Monday evenings has just begun.

Stopka second in handball

KANKAKEE — Zalatel, Stopka, Delaney, O'Brien and Morello win! In the Second District handball tournament five of the six trophies were won by the Joliet YMCA group.

In the "A" class, Zeke Zalatel, defending state champion won the district title for the eighth year, beating Ronald Stopka, athletic director of Lincoln-Way High School.

Zalatel beat Jim Annoreno, Evanston, and Denny Malmgreen, Aurora, to advance to the finals. Stopka beat third seeded Vern McKinley, Evanston, 21-12, 18-21, 21-8, and second seeded Bob Delaney in a two and a half hour battle, 21-15; 13-21, 21-13. Stopka lost to Zalatel in two games, 21-6 and 21-18.

Due to an injury Delaney had to forfeit to Denny Malmgreen. In the class "B" district, Joe Morello, Joliet, won third place by beating Jim Martin, Joliet; losing to Gene Gordan, Aurora, and beating George Linder, Aurora.

Jack O'Brien, Joliet, beat Bob North, Kankakee, Don Usewich, and George Linder, the latter by forfeit.

The top four players of "A" and "B" class from each district qualify for the state tournament that will be held at Aurora, April 14-18.

Frankfort Chamber members form Fall Festival committee

FRANKFORT — The annual Frankfort Fall Festival, and environmental and welfare projects came in for discussions at the regular meeting of the Frankfort Chamber of Commerce last Thursday night in the Wagon Wheel Restaurant.

The festival will be held over Labor Day weekend and is expected to follow the formats that have been so successful in the past.

Nine members volunteered to get the festival plans started. They will meet at 7:30 p.m. tomorrow, March 2, in one of the offices at Phillips Chevrolet on U.S. 30 and are expected to choose a chairman.

W. Leonard Patterson and Burton Breidert, who have spearheaded the festival program for several years will meet with the committee Thursday night to acquaint the members with their experiences. Both men said they would not be active in festival plans this year but would be willing to serve in an advisory capacity if they could be of service.

The nine volunteers to meet as the festival committee are: Richard Freeman, Robert Dehn, Brian Hillenbrand, Albert and Connie Behnke, Sigmund Rodsner, Kay Nelson, June Woodman and Harold Slocum.

Brought to the attention of the membership was the Hickory Creek clean-up project sponsored by the New Lenox Sportsmen Club. There are ten teams that will clear the creek and banks of debris between Wolf Road and the Pilcher Park dam in Joliet. If the project is to extend east of Wolf Road those in charge want commitments for help from Frankfort and other communities to the east.

The Chamber of Commerce has not adopted this as one of its projects but if anyone in the area is interested in participating they can call Ed Johnson, at 485-8871.

The next chamber meeting is April 19 but the time and place are to be announced later.

Last week's meeting was the first since the new officers were elected. Herman Fabiani, the president introduced the officers: Jack Rohats, vice president; Harold Slocum, treasurer, and Helen Dopudja, secretary. The directors are Ed Nowocin, Phil Pascarella and W. Leonard Patterson.

Sticker prices to change

MOKENA — Mokena will change its ordinance covering vehicle stickers. Village Attorney George E. Sangmeister has been instructed to draft a new measure which will become effective next year. The fees will vary.

If a sticker is not purchased prior to Feb. 15 the price will be an additional $10, plus the original cost.

The schedule of fees recommended by the board after studying ordinances from other communities will be as follows:

Motorcycles $ 3.00
Electric motor vehicles $ 3.50
Cars $ 5.00
Trucks up to 4 tons $ 5.00
Trucks, 4 to 15 tons $10.00
Trucks over 15 tons $20.00
At the last meeting of the village board police commissioner Anthony Dina reported there are approximately 10 motorists who have not purchased stickers for 1972.

Sangmeister is Will campaign chief for Simon

MOKENA — George E. Sangmeister, former magistrate and state's attorney and now a candidate for state representative on the Democratic ticket in the 42d District, has been named campaign activities coordinator for the Paul Simon for Governor Committee in Will County.

Sangmeister said that citizens who wish to volunteer should stop at campaign headquarters, 52 N. Chicago St., Joliet, or telephone 815-723-9345.

State Representative John J. Houlihan, chairman of the Will County Democratic Central Committee said headquarters hours are 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. daily.

Sangmeister who has an office in Frankfort and serves Mokena as village attorney is a member of the Joliet law firm of McKeown, McKeown, Fitzgerald, Zolner, Buck, Sangmeister and Hutchison.

Bowling tournament ends winter sports

FRANKFORT — The Frankfort Park District will wind-up its winter recreation program for youngsters with a bowling tournament at the Frankfort lanes March 4 and 11.

This tourney is for children in the 3rd, 4th, 5th, and 6th grades. This Saturday the boys in the 4th, 5th and 6th grades are to start their bowling at 8:30 a.m. Time for the girls and third graders will be from 10:30 to noon. Teams will be chosen on March 4 to compete in the finals March 11.

This will conclude a 10-week sports program carried in the Frankfort grade school gym under the direction of the Park District and the grade school board. In charge of the program were Bruce and Sandy Loyer. Loyer is working on a degree in outdoor recreation; Mrs. Loyer is a physical education teacher at Lincoln-Way high school. The summer recreation program is to begin June 19, according to Mrs. Janet Page, secretary of the park board. She said that applications are sought for an adult recreation leader and student recreation assistants.

Persons interested in such activities are invited to write Mrs. Page, Box 116, Frankfort, Ill., 60423, and give her a resume of their school and working experience.

Board denies senior fee

MOKENA — A motion to give senior citizens a special rate on village motor vehicle sticker fees was voted down by the Mokena Village Board.

Trustee Lloyd Leyerle reported to the board that he had a copy of the Crete ordinance giving senior citizens a discount. There was some discussion and Trustee Kenneth Warning brought it to a close with a motion to set the sticker fee for a senior citizen at $1.

This was seconded by Trustee Robert Teske but on the vote Warning and Trustee Anthony Dina Sr. were the only aye votes. Teske, Leyerle and Ebert voted against it.
